ENRD launched a photo competition "Images of Rural Europe" promoted by Local Action Groups

Images of Rural Europe aims to celebrate the beauty and diversity of Rural Europe by collecting photos covering a variety of rural development themes, from all EU Member States. All photos will be considered for inclusion in a major EU 'Travelling' Exhibition' during 2012/2013. The exhibition will begin with a high profile launch ceremony at the European Commission Headquarters Berlaymont in Brussels, where the Commissioner for Agriculture and Rural Development Mr Dacian Cioloş, will present the awards for 'best photos' in each category to the winning photographers. The exhibition will also showcase a number of short-listed photos in each category.

The Images of Rural Europe competition is open to all professional and amateur photographers who are resident in one of the EU Member States. Each entrant may submit as many photos as s/he wishes but must do so directly through their Local Action Group (LAG).

The last day for submission of photos from LAGs is Friday 18th May 2012.
